

Frederick D. Junkin

Partner

600 Travis
Suite 4200
Houston TX 77002

P: 713.220.4766
F: 713.238.7387
fredjunkin@andrewskurth.com

PRACTICE AREAS

Public Law

EDUCATION

JD, 1989, honors, The University of Texas School of Law, Texas Law Review, Managing Editor (1988-1989), Order of the Coif

BA, 1986, departmental honors, Austin College

ADMITTED

Texas 1990

US Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit

US District Court for the Southern District of Texas

Mr. Junkin focuses his practice on civil litigation and public law issues. He has represented clients in a wide variety of litigation involving governmental matters, including eminent domain proceedings, construction disputes, election contests, zoning controversies, and contract actions. He has extensive experience with regard to eminent domain law, having represented both acquiring authorities and landowners in a variety of proceedings, including takings for light rail facilities, highway and road widenings, a natural gas storage facility, pipeline right-of-way, railroad right-of-way, and sports venues. In addition to his public law practice, Mr. Junkin represents private clients in property rights litigation and commercial disputes. He also has significant experience in the handling of appellate matters in both the state and federal courts of appeals.

PROFESSIONAL/CIVIC AFFILIATIONS

Member

- State Bar of Texas
- Houston Bar Association

Clerkship - Served one-year judicial clerkship with the Honorable Thomas M. Reavley, US Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit

Listed - Texas Rising Star, Texas Monthly magazine (2004)